1 Useful Information

A full stop (.) is used at the end of a sentence.

A comma (,) is used:

- like a brief pause in speech to make the sentence easier to read. to separate items in a list, except for the last two items where we use and.
- after many linking words that come at the beginning of a sentence, e.g. However, Also, Moreover, In addition, For example
- before please if it's used at the end of a sentence, e.g. Can you provide me with some examples of this use, please?
However, at the beginning of a sentence please is usually not separated by a comma, e.g. Please provide me with examples.
- After a salutation and a closing line. However, in modern emails commas may be dropped in these cases, e.g. Dear Mary (); Best regards ().

A colon (:) is used to introduce items in a list, e.g. action items.

A semi-colon (;) is used to separate long items in a list, particularly if there are commas inside some items.

Capital letters (upper case) are used:

- to begin a sentence;
- for names of people (Kate Smith), places (Minsk), events (IT Week) and organizations (EPAM);
- for job titles (Business Analyst);
- for nationalities (Belarusian);
- for calendar information like days (Friday), months (September), etc.
